CAYMAN ISLANDS

Law 13 of 2016.

I Assent

Helen Kilpatrick

Governor.

Date: 9 June, 2016

A LAW TO AMEND THE ANTI-CORRUPTION LAW (2014 REVISION); AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES

ENACTED by the Legislature of the Cayman Islands.

1. (1) This Law may be cited as the Anti-Corruption (Amendment) Law, 2016.

Short title and commencement

(2) This Law shall come into force on such date as may be appointed by Order made by the Cabinet.

2. The Anti-Corruption Law (2014 Revision), in this Law referred to as “the principal Law”, is amended in section 2 as follows -

Amendment of section 2
of the Anti-Corruption
Law (2014 Revision) - interpretation

- (a) by deleting the definition of “constable”;
- (b) by deleting the definitions of “government entity”, “Police Force” and “public officer” and by substituting the following definitions -

“government entity” includes a ministry, portfolio, the Cabinet Office, Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Office of the Complaints Commissioner, the Office of the Information Commissioner, the Audit Office, the Legislative Assembly, a statutory body, statutory authority and a government company;

(2014 Revision)

“Police Service” means the Royal Cayman Islands Police Service referred to in the Police Law (2014 Revision); and “public officer” includes -

- (a) a person holding public office whether temporarily or permanently by appointment, or by the operation of any law;
 - (b) a judge, a magistrate, an arbitrator, a mediator, an umpire, an assessor, a member of a jury or a referee in any proceeding or matter with the sanction of any court or in pursuance of any law;
 - (c) a justice of the peace;
 - (d) a member or employee of a statutory tribunal or commission of inquiry;
 - (e) a member, director or employee of a government company or statutory authority;
 - (f) a member, director or employee of a not for profit association controlled by the government; and
 - (g) a person appointed, selected or otherwise engaged to perform a public function; and
- (c) by inserting the following definitions in their appropriate alphabetical sequence -

“investigating officer” means a person appointed by the Governor in accordance with section 3A to investigate complaints under this Law and to carry out such other duties as may be provided in this Law; and

“public function” may include any activity performed a single time or continually, whether or not payment is received therefor, which is carried out by -

- (a) a person for, or on behalf of or under the direction of a government entity; or
- (b) a body, whether a government entity or a private body, providing services to the public.

Insertion of new sections - appointment of staff of the Commission, etc.

3. The principal Law is amended by inserting after section 3 the following sections -

“Appointment of staff of the Commission

(2013 Revision)

3A. (1) The Governor shall, appoint and employ at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as are provided by this Law and the Public Service (Management) Law (2013

Revision), a manager and such other public officers as the Governor thinks are necessary for the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Law.

(2) The duties of the manager shall include -

- (a) organising and attending the meetings of the Commission;
- (b) recording the proceedings of the Commission and keeping the minutes of each meeting in proper form;
- (c) accepting and acknowledging complaints made to the Commission;
- (d) generally assisting the Commission in the performance of administrative duties relating to the work of the Commission as the Commission may require; and
- (e) supervising administratively the staff of the Commission.

Governor's power to make secondments

3B. The Governor may, subject to such conditions as he may impose, approve of the appointment of any public officer in the service of any government entity by way of secondment to any office with the Commission; and any public officer so appointed shall, in relation to pension, gratuity or other allowance, and in relation to other rights as a public officer, be treated as continuing in the service of the Government.

Investigating officers

3C. (1) Public officers appointed under sections 3A and 3B may include investigating officers who shall have the function of carrying out investigations in relation to any matter, whether or not involving an alleged offence, in respect of which the Commission exercises function under this Law or any other law.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), investigating officers shall, for the purpose of performing their duties under this Law, have all the powers and immunities of constables acting generally in the ordinary course of their duty but shall not carry a firearm.

(3) An identity card in a form provided by the Commission and signed by the chairman shall be issued to each investigating officer and shall be evidence of the investigating officer's appointment.

(4) An investigating officer shall, if requested to do so, produce his identity card for inspection to any person in relation to whom the investigating officer is about to exercise, is exercising or has exercised a power under this Law.

(5) An investigating officer has the powers specified in this Law but, for the avoidance of doubt, is not a member of the Police Service and is not subject to-

- (a) direction or control by the Commissioner of Police; or
- (b) the Police Law (2014 Revision) or regulations made under that Law.

(2014 Revision)

(6) An investigating officer shall be supervised in the performance of his investigatory duties by a senior investigating officer appointed under this Law.

Powers of arrest

3D. (1) In carrying out functions under this Law, an investigating officer has the powers of a constable to arrest any person whom the investigating officer reasonably suspects has committed a corruption offence or any other offence which the investigating officer reasonably suspects is related to such corruption offence and which is punishable by imprisonment under this Law or under any other Law.

(2) After making an arrest, the investigating officer may deliver the person arrested to a police station to be further dealt with according to law.

Appointment of consultants and experts

3E. (1) The manager, acting on behalf of and with the approval of the Commission, may appoint consultants and experts to assist the Commission in the performance of its functions.

(2) The consultants and experts appointed under subsection (1) may be paid such remuneration as the Commission may, after consultation with the Governor, approve.

(3) Any remuneration paid pursuant to subsection (2) shall be paid out of the revenue of the Islands.”.

4. The principal Law is amended in section 4(2) by inserting after paragraph (e) the following paragraph -

Amendment of section 4 - powers, duties and functions of the Commission under this Law

“(ea) may enter into any agreement or arrangement, in writing, with any local law enforcement authority, where it considers it necessary or desirable to do so for the discharge or performance of its powers, duties and functions;”.

5. The principal Law is amended by inserting after section 4 the following section -

Insertion of new section - delegation of powers, duties and functions of the Commission

“Delegation of powers, duties and functions of the Commission

4A. (1) The Commission may delegate any of its duties and functions under this Law to the Commissioner of Police in accordance with this section.

(2) The Commissioner of Police may sub-delegate a duty or function delegated under subsection (1) but only in accordance with the terms and conditions of a delegation under subsection (1).

(3) Subject to subsection (2), a sub-delegation under this section may be made to a specified person or person of a specified group or to the holder or holders for the time being of a specified office or offices, and various duties and functions may respectively be delegated to different persons.

(4) A delegation under this section -

- (a) shall be in writing;
- (b) may be made on such terms and conditions as the Commission thinks fit; and
- (c) may be amended or revoked at any time by written notice from the Commission.

(5) Except to the extent that the terms and conditions of the delegation otherwise provide, the Commissioner of Police or a sub-delegate may exercise any duty or function in the same manner and with the same effect as if the duty or function had been conferred on the Commissioner of Police or the sub-delegate directly and not by delegation.

(6) A delegation under this section shall not affect or prevent the exercise of any of the duties and functions of the Commission nor shall any such delegation affect the responsibility of the Commission for the actions of the Commissioner of Police or a sub-delegate; and once a decision is made, the decision shall, for all purposes, be as good as having been made by the Commission.”

Amendment of section
19- conflicts of interests

6. The principal Law is amended by repealing section 19 and by substituting the following section -

“Conflicts of interests

19. (1) Where a government entity proposes to deal with a company, partnership or other undertaking in which -

- (a) a public officer of the entity;
- (b) a member of the Legislative Assembly; or

- (c) a member of the family, or an associate, of any person specified in paragraphs (a) or (b),
