Protection of informers

- 37. (1) Where a person discloses to the Commission or to an investigating officer information concerning a corruption offence or the proceeds or suspected proceeds of a corruption offence, the disclosure shall not be treated as a breach of any restriction upon the disclosure of information by any enactment or otherwise and shall not give rise to any civil liability.
- (2) Except as provided in this section, no complaint as to an offence under this Law shall be admitted in evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding and no witness shall be obliged or permitted to disclose the name or address of any informer or state any matter which might lead to his discovery.
- (3) Where any books, documents or papers which are in evidence or liable to inspection in any civil or criminal proceeding whatsoever contains any entry in which any informer is named or described or which might lead to his discovery, the court before which the proceeding is held shall cause all such passages to be concealed from view or to be obliterated so far as is necessary to protect the informer from discovery but no further.
- (4) Where, in any proceeding relating to an offence under this Law, the court, after full inquiry into the case —
- (a) is of the opinion that the informer wilfully made in his complaint a material statement which he knew or believed to be false or did not believe to be true; or
 - (b) is of the opinion that justice cannot be fully done between the parties thereto without the discovery of the informer,
- the court may require the production of the original complaint, if in writing, and permit inquiry and require full disclosure concerning the informer.

Proceedings in the Legislative Assembly

- 38. No written law or rule of law preventing proceedings in the Legislative Assembly being impeached or questioned in any court or place outside of the Legislative Assembly shall prevent any evidence of words, spoken, or acts performed, by a person alleged to have committed a corruption offence as a member of the Legislative Assembly being admissible —

- (a) in proceedings for that offence against that person; or
- (b) in proceedings for a corruption offence which arises out of the same facts.

- 40. (1) Subsection (2) applies if, apart from that subsection, a person would commit a corruption offence in doing an act or making an omission.
- (2) The person referred to in subsection (1) (“an agent provocateur”) does not commit a corruption offence if the act or omission done or made is authorised to be done or made by virtue of an authorisation given by the Governor.
 - (3) The Governor may give an authorisation under subsection (2) only if he is satisfied that the conditions in subsection (4) and (5) are met.
 - (4) The first condition is that —
 - (a) any acts or omissions which may be done or made in reliance on the authorisation will be necessary for the security of the Islands or for preventing or detecting indictable offences; or
 - (b) the operation in the course of which any such acts or omissions may be done or made will be necessary for the proper discharge of such a function.

- (5) The second condition is that there are satisfactory arrangements in force to secure —
 - (a) that no act or omission will be done or made in reliance on the authorisation beyond what is necessary for the security of the Islands or preventing or detecting indictable offences; and
 - (b) that, in so far as any acts or omissions may be done or made in reliance on the authorisation, their nature and likely consequences will be reasonable, having regard to the purposes for which they are done or made.
- (6) An authorisation under subsection (2) may in particular —
 - (a) relate to one or more specified acts or omissions, to acts or omissions of a specified description or to acts or omissions done or made in the course of a specified operation;

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the authorisation is renewed under subsection (4) before the day on which it would otherwise cease to have effect.
- (4) The Governor may renew an authorisation for a period of six months starting on the day on which it would otherwise cease to have effect, if at any time before that day he considers it necessary for the authorisation to continue to have effect for the purpose for which it was given.
- (5) Subsection (3) may apply more than once.
- (6) A renewal under subsection (4) shall be made under the hand of the Governor.
- (7) The Governor shall cancel an authorisation if he is satisfied that an act or omission authorised by virtue of it is no longer necessary.
